

Introducing the brand choosing to hope, help & heal.

We all have choices to make in this life, sometimes they are the right choices and sometimes they are wrong. In my mind, not to make a choice at all is unforgivable. My family's experiences have led me to choose to try to do some good in this world and to leave a legacy of peace.

My Dad was a police officer in Khan Yunis, Gaza. Forced from his home to live in Lebanon wasn't the tragedy he expected - he met and married my Mum!

I am one of six siblings. My brothers and I are all raising families here in the UK where we enjoy a peaceful, secure lifestyle - one that we don't take for granted.

We are proud to own a Palestinian and Lebanese restaurant and Shisha Bar which has become one of the North East's most popular venues.

Recently I've become concerned about some consumer brands who seem to fund and support those in this world intent on conflict.

So I've chosen to see if I can do the opposite.

Drinks are integral to our restaurant business so it was simple for me to choose to launch a range of amazing tasting colas and sodas, the profits from which could be used for good.

50% of my brand's profit will be donated to The Palestinian Red Crescent in Gaza and as the uncle of a premature niece, 30% will be donated to a local charity helping the families of premature infants.

Have I made the right choice? Only time will tell.

Peace be upon you. Mohammed Wafi

We strive to be a force for good in our turbulent world. We thought, maybe we could do some good for children in the UK and conflict regions. 80% of our profit will go to medical and humanitarian charities. We've been told this makes no commercial sense...
